2005 OREGON
VIOGNIER
ROGUE VALLEY

Winemaker's Notes

A very small harvest of exceptional ripe fruit enabled us to capture the elusive qualities so treasured by fans of Viognier. Abundant floral and tropical fragrances lead to a very rich, viscous texture. Vibrant flavors of peaches and nectarines balance this rich and elegant white wine.

Awards:

- Oregon State Fair Wine Competition- Bronze Medal Winner
- "Intense flowery peach and pear aromas introduce sweet, concentrated peach, pear, and apricot flavors with a nicely viscous mouth feel. Weighty and rich, almost off-dry, this will go well with the spice of red curry chicken."
- Rated "Outstanding!" by Wine Press Northwest Winter 2006/2007
"Dried mangoes, tangerines and candy corn aromas are balanced with notes of grassiness. On the entry is a flavorful blast of tangerines, nectarines, peaches and citrus, and acidity trails just behind in this rich drink."
